

SaskPower Representative – Wayne Rude, Biography

Wayne Rude has worked with and for First Nations and related institutions in Saskatchewan for over 30 years. His roles have included financial management, strategic planning, program development, economic projects, asset management, lands acquisitions, and more.

Wayne is the Manager of Indigenous Relations, People, Safety & Indigenous and Corporate Affairs at SaskPower, and has been with SaskPower for 14 years. He leads and works with teams that collaborate to build, sustain, and ensure positive Indigenous relationships with organizations, businesses, stakeholder's customers and communities across Saskatchewan.