

Mark Johnson having many years in construction trades is an Indigenous business owner and member of the Tobique First Nation. Operating in Moncton, NB, we strive to build strong lasting business opportunities in the construction sector.

HCS Hub City Service Ltd. Is devoted to creating new business growth and community opportunities as we work alongside with federal procurement and our indigenous business supporters.

"As a company, we will adapt and persevere to ensure that our next generation has the opportunity to broaden their horizons and continue to grow as community leaders" – Mark Johnson.